PARENTING QUESTIONNAIRE (True or False)

depart from it," is a promise of salvation.  The main implication of biblical discipline is spanking.  A family starts when children are given to a husband and wife.  Training children to respect and honor us and others comes by helping them have a greater image.  Children are born foolish, but only parents make fools.  When it comes to discipline, spanking should be the last resort.  You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.  Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.  Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.	1.	T	F	Most of our parenting is by verbal instruction.
<ul> <li>4. T F Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will n depart from it," is a promise of salvation.</li> <li>5. T F The main implication of biblical discipline is spanking.</li> <li>6. T F A family starts when children are given to a husband and wife.</li> <li>7. T F Training children to respect and honor us and others comes by helping them have a great image.</li> <li>8. T F Children are born foolish, but only parents make fools.</li> <li>9. T F When it comes to discipline, spanking should be the last resort.</li> <li>10. T F You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.</li> <li>11. T F Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.</li> <li>12. T F Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.</li> <li>13. T F Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.</li> <li>14. T F Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.</li> <li>15. T F Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.</li> <li>16. T F The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.</li> <li>17. T F Time heals rejection and hurt.</li> </ul>	2.	T	F	The two main enemies of parenting are emotions and ignorance.
depart from it," is a promise of salvation.  The main implication of biblical discipline is spanking.  A family starts when children are given to a husband and wife.  Training children to respect and honor us and others comes by helping them have a greater self image.  Children are born foolish, but only parents make fools.  The when it comes to discipline, spanking should be the last resort.  You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.  Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.  Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  The motionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.	3.	T	F	If we win our children's friendship, parenting will be easier for us.
6. T F A family starts when children are given to a husband and wife.  7. T F Training children to respect and honor us and others comes by helping them have a general self image.  8. T F Children are born foolish, but only parents make fools.  9. T F When it comes to discipline, spanking should be the last resort.  10. T F You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.  11. T F Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.  12. T F Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  13. T F Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  14. T F Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  15. T F Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  16. T F The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  17. T F Time heals rejection and hurt.	4.	T	F	Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it," is a promise of salvation.
7. T F Training children to respect and honor us and others comes by helping them have a greater to triangle.  8. T F Children are born foolish, but only parents make fools.  9. T F When it comes to discipline, spanking should be the last resort.  10. T F You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.  11. T F Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.  12. T F Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  13. T F Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  14. T F Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  15. T F Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  16. T F The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.	5.	T	F	The main implication of biblical discipline is spanking.
self image.  8. T F Children are born foolish, but only parents make fools.  9. T F When it comes to discipline, spanking should be the last resort.  10. T F You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.  11. T F Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.  12. T F Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  13. T F Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  14. T F Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  15. T F Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  16. T F The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.	6.	T	F	A family starts when children are given to a husband and wife.
9. T F When it comes to discipline, spanking should be the last resort.  10. T F You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.  11. T F Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.  12. T F Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  13. T F Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  14. T F Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  15. T F Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  16. T F The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  17. T F Time heals rejection and hurt.	7.	T	F	Training children to respect and honor us and others comes by helping them have a good self image.
You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.  Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.  Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  Time heals rejection and hurt.	8.	T	F	Children are born foolish, but only parents make fools.
been spanked.  11. T F Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.  12. T F Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  13. T F Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  14. T F Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  15. T F Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  16. T F The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  17. T F Time heals rejection and hurt.	9.	T	F	When it comes to discipline, spanking should be the last resort.
Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.  Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  Time heals rejection and hurt.	10.	T	F	You can tell a child has truly repented if he cries or says he is sorry, even if he hasn't been spanked.
Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.  Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  Time heals rejection and hurt.	11.	T	F	Reminding a child to do something two or three times is okay as long as they do it.
14. T F Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.  15. T F Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  16. T F The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  17. T F Time heals rejection and hurt.	12.	T	F	Teenage rebellion is normal and should be expected.
Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  Time heals rejection and hurt.	13.	T	F	Emotionally hyperactive children are due to improper parenting.
Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.  The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standar of right and wrong.  Time heals rejection and hurt.	14.	T	F	Strong peer pressure is a result of weak family identity.
of right and wrong.  17. T F Time heals rejection and hurt.	15.	Τ	F	Our parental standards, values and beliefs should not be mandated upon our children. Instead, children should have the choice to accept or reject them.
	16.	T	F	The higher conscience of a child is a clean slate on which the parent writes the standards of right and wrong.
18. T F Spanking teaches children violence.	17.	Т	F	Time heals rejection and hurt.
	18.	T	F	Spanking teaches children violence.

All of the above questions will be covered in the coming weeks during this parenting class. Come learn with us!