

Understanding People - Chapters 3 & 4 Biblical Sufficiency

These questions are designed to help you think through the chapters as you read them. We will be discussing them in class.

- 1). Crabb begins chapter 3 by making vital distinctions between two categories of human problems. Summarize each (Pages 46-47)
- 2). Crabb describes three different positions related to the question of Biblical sufficiency to provide a framework for answering every question that confronts a counselor.
 - A. What results from holding the first position that the Bible is not sufficient. (Pages 48-53)
 - B. What are the results of holding the second position that the Bible is sufficient because it answers every question that should be asked (pages 54-58).
- 3). In chapter 4 Crabb talks about psychological therapy and Frued. What was Frued right about according to Crabb (Pages 59-61)

What was Frued in error about according to Crabb?

What do you think?
6. How does Crabb describe Biblical sufficiency? (Pg. 62)

Describe Biblical sufficiency in your own words. What Scriptures support this view?
7. What three questions does Crabb ask in his model for finding Biblical answers for crucial questions? (Pg 63)
8. What process do we need to go through in order to develop and apply Bible commands, principles and precepts to our lives and the lives of those around us? (Pg. 63-71)
 - A. Proper exegesis. (Pg. 63-66)
 - B. Develop Biblical Doctrine - (Pg. 66-69}
 - C. Implications: Application of Biblical truth to our lives (pp 69-71)
 - D. Images: Communication of the these truths (pp 71-71)