

Understanding People - Chapter 10 - People are Volitional
Study Questions

1. Crabb talks about the effect of confusion on people (pp 153-157).
 - A. What is the motivating force behind the desire to end confusion?

 - B. What are the options for dealing with confusion?

 - C. Is confusion a necessary part of life?

 - D. What is trivializing reality and why is it dangerous (pp 156-157)?

2. What is the importance of understanding that because humans are volitional beings there are therefore ultimately responsible for all of their behavior.

3. Explain V-1 and V-2
V-1:

V-2:

4. Describe the Volitional Circle?
 - A. What is a full volitional circle?

 - B. What is a less than full volitional circle?

5. How is the volitional circle increased?

6. Is confusion an enemy or an opportunity?

7. How does the volitional circle fit in with the rational circle & repentance and the personal circle?